Academic Integrity

You are expected to take academic integrity very seriously and be mindful of your own activities and the requests/offers you may receive from others. In addition to the guidelines in the Academic Calendar (Regulations and Policies, Subsection 8a), for all assessment items in this course, the following are considered cheating, plagiarism, or academic misconduct:

- Copying from another student’s work and submitting it as your own (group or collaborative work approved by the instructor is not considered cheating).
- Uploading the assignment questions on filesharing websites (such as Chegg.com, quizlet, ChatGPT, or any other “Help” sites) in order to receive help or solutions.
- Copying from any sources, including, but not limited to: the Internet; any AI tools, online calculators and graphing tools; assignments or test/exams from previous years or from other courses; solutions provided by a third party (purchased or otherwise).
- Asking questions from another student or any unauthorized person during the exams and tests, including, but not limited to: the in-person exams, take-home exams, or remote exams.
- Talking or communicating with other student(s), during the exams/test (in-person or on Zoom), in any language, for any reason or purpose.
- Using or having in one’s possession any unauthorized sources and devices during the tests and exams.
- Soliciting and obtaining solutions to the assignments, test, and exams via any means of communication (e.g., e-mail, text, phone call, social media chats, etc.).

- Providing test or exam questions and/or solutions to another student, uploading them to a filesharing website, or otherwise sharing them outside the course.

It is your responsibility to know the policies and guidelines, and to be aware of the academic misconduct procedures. Anybody involved in the process could be charged with academic misconduct. For more information, please see the Academic Calendar, Regulations and Policies, Subsection 8a.

 - Please note the importance of maintaining academic integrity, and the potential consequences of engaging in plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic misconduct.
 - Even unintentional plagiarism is a form of academic misconduct.
 - Similarly, uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) is a form of misconduct, as it involves aiding and abetting plagiarism.
 - An updated and expanded University of Winnipeg library site outlining principles of Academic Integrity can be found at <https://library.uwinnipeg.ca/use-the-library/help-with-research/academic-integrity.html>.
 - Important information is outlined in the Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures:
 - * <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/policies/docs/policies/academic-misconduct-policy.pdf>
 - * <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/policies/docs/procedures/academic-misconduct-procedures.pdf>
- Academic integrity and AI text-generating tools
 - Students must follow principles of academic integrity (e.g., honesty, respect, fairness, and responsibility) in their use of material obtained through AI text-generating tools (e.g., ChatGPT, Bing, Notion AI).
 - If an instructor prohibits the use of AI tools in a course, students may face an allegation of academic misconduct if using them to do assignments.
 - If AI tools are permitted, students must cite them. According to the MLA (<https://style.mla.org/citing-generative-ai/>), “you should
 - a. cite a generative AI tool whenever you paraphrase, quote, or incorporate into your own work any content (whether text, image, data, or other) that was created by it
 - b. acknowledge all functional uses of the tool (like editing your prose or translating words) in a note, your text, or another suitable location
 - c. take care to vet the secondary sources it cites”
 - If students aren’t sure whether or not they can use AI tools, they should ask their professors.

- Research ethics
 - Students conducting research interviews, focus groups, surveys, or any other method of collecting data from any person, including a family member, must obtain research ethics approval before commencing data collection. Exceptions are research activities done in class as a learning exercise. For submission requirements and deadlines, see <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/research/ethics/human-ethics.html>.
- Privacy
 - Students should be reminded of their rights in relation to the collecting of personal data by the University (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/admissions-privacy-notice.html>), especially if Zoom is being used for remote learning (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-privacy-notice.html>) and testing/proctoring (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-test-and-exam-proctoring.html>).
- Copyright and intellectual property
 - Course materials are the property of the instructor who developed them. Examples of such materials are course outlines, assignment descriptions, lecture notes, test questions, and presentation slides—irrespective of format. Students who upload these materials to filesharing sites, or in any other way share these materials with others outside the class without prior permission of the instructor/presenter, are in violation of copyright law and University policy.
 - Students must also seek prior permission of the instructor/presenter before, for example, photographing, recording, or taking screenshots of slides, presentations, lectures, and notes on the board.
 - Students found to be in violation of an instructor’s intellectual property rights could face serious consequences pursuant to the Academic Misconduct or Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; such consequences could possibly involve legal sanction under the Copyright policy
<https://copyright.uwinnipeg.ca/basics/copyright-policy.html>
- Respectful learning environment
 - Students are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful manner on campus and in the learning environment irrespective of platform being used. Behaviour, communication, or acts that are inconsistent with a number of UW policies could be considered non-academic misconduct.
 - See the following policies:
 - * Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy
(<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect/respect-policy.html>)
 - * Acceptable Use of Information Technology Policy
(<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/policies/docs/policies/acceptable-use-of-information-technology-policy.pdf>).
